Martin Miles joins Independent Trustee Services Limited

15th May 2009, London: Independent Trustee Services Ltd (ITS) is delighted to announce the appointment of Martin Miles, who will join the ITS Board. Martin has spent over 30 years in the pensions industry advising employers, trustees and regulators on all aspects of pensions and has held numerous Scheme Actuary appointments.

Chris Martin, Managing Director, ITS, says "Martin's experience will be invaluable in helping us respond to the increasing demand for the appointment of corporate professional trustees. In particular, we are seeing that both trustees and employers are recognising the need to appointment professional trustees in these challenging times".

Martin Miles, says, " I am delighted to be joining ITS as one of the leading, award winning trustee companies. ITS has a great reputation for in-depth experience and excellent client service. I felt that working as part of a corporate team would provide important access to a support network and up to date information and resources which are vital for professional trustees today".

Martin's career started with a small mutual life office where he qualified as an actuary before switching to pensions consultancy. He was a director at Buck Consultants for many years before moving to Hewitt in 1991 and then joining the PwC Partnership in 1997. Martin is also a member of the Pension Advisory Service.
